A major flooding in Italy being blamed for at least one person's death! Heavy downpours causing two rivers to breach banks, sending walls of rain and mud down several streets into the port city of Genoa! The flood waters creating sink holes and tossing around parked cars like toys! Some areas lost electricity forcing schools to close! And we are also told a train derailed because of the extremely dangerous conditions! Italy's civil protection department warns more rain is on the way!

What began as a peaceful political rally ends in chaos as people stormed the gates of a crowded stadium killing at least 7 people. Our top story as we ground the world in 80 seconds.

Pakistan! At least 40 more were hurt in the stampede! A crowd of 40,000 packed a stadium for a speech by a popular sports star turned anti government candidate! The rally took the disastrous turn at the end as crowds tried to push their way out of the stadium!

Peru! Search teams recovering the body of one of two Israeli tourists who vanished on a whitewater rafting trip deep in the Andes Mountains! The pair disappeared after the raft tipped over. Police say 6 other Israeli tourists also on board made it back to shore. The search for the other victim continues!

Nicaragua! Record rains triggered at least 5 destructive landslides, flooding 100s of homes and destroying dozens more! The cleanup process could be a long one with rocks and giant boulders now covering roads and crippling key infrastructure! More rain is expected to hit that area over the weekend!

China! Man's best friend showing off at the national pet show! More than 400 dogs competing in events that include an obstacle course and even a grooming contest and the event isn't just for pooches. There were competitions for other animals too like cats, hamsters and chinchillas. And that's a wrap on this Fox trip around the world in 80 seconds!

A rare Siberian tiger set free by Russian President Bladimir Putin, has already made its way from Russia into China. And that's now apparently created a bit of a cross border crisis for the 2 countries apparently! Chinese officials say they have spotted signs of the tiger's presence and have dispatched teams to remove traps and make sure it's protected from poachers while it's there! We were told they have even set up 60 cameras in the hopes of locating the tiger! It was one of five tigers personally set free by Putin in eastern Siberia earlier this year. Siberian tigers by the way are endangered species with fewer than 500 remaining in the wild!

Time now for a final check of your headlines! Federal health officials rolling out Ebola screening procedures at 5 major US airports! Customs agents today began taking the temperatures of passengers arriving at New York's JFK airport
