Good morning, believe. The US women win the World Cup in dominating fashion. 4 goals in the first 16 minutes, 3 from superstar Carli Lloyd and she is celebrating with us. Rejected! Greek voters say no to a bailout worth billions, exactly what Wall Street didn't want. How will the markets react this morning? Airborne! A fiery crash at the finish, the NASCAR race overnight! Car sailing into a fence, then breaking apart. Some spectators injured by flying debris, but the driver walks away. Monday, July 6th, 2015. From NBC news, this is Today, with Matt Lauer and Savannah Guthrie, live from Studio 1A in Rockefeller Plaza.

Happy Monday to you, John, Christine. Yes, we have a new household name in American soccer. Carli Lloyd. Carli Lloyd is legend. She scored a hat trick in the World Cup Final. Three goals in one game against Japan!. She is the second person and first woman to ever accomplish. It's their first World Cup title since 99' and now they've done with no other country has done.

"I have dedicated my entire life to this game, um, to this moment. Everything has come second in my life. My fiancé, my friends, my family! This is it for me. If you're gonna do something and you want to be the best that you can be, you've got to sacrifice so much. And for me, I wouldn't trade it for anything in the world."

Now patriotism is still following fast and furious following last night beat. President Obama even tweeted a shout-out to the champs "What a win for Team USA" he said, "Great game, Carli Lloyd, your country is so proud of all of you. Come visit the White House with the World Cup soon!"

CBS news, Up to the Minute. "That's it, game over, the US wins for 2015 Women's World Cup!" Celebrations from Boston and across the country after Team USA defeats Japan to win its third Women's World Cup. Greece teeters on the verge of bankruptcy this morning after voters overwhelmingly reject new austerity measures, needed for another bailout. Good morning, it's Monday July 6, 2015, this is CBS news Up to the Minute. I am Alison Hamelin in for Anne Marie Green.

After more than 15 years, the US women brought home their third World Cup trophy after overwhelming Japan. Carli Lloyd scored a hat trick, the first ever in a women's World Cup final and made 3 of the goals. Kenneth Crag reports.

Number 10, Carli Lloyd's aggressive play put team USA out front early and they never looked back. Lloyd made history by scoring by 2 of her 3 goals in the first 6 minutes of the first half. "I was just on mission, I was on a mission to help my team win this game" Fans across the country, tuned into watch the final match. Here in New York City, sports bars were packed. Vice President Joe Biden was among the sea of red, white and blue, cheering the women to victory in Vancouver. The 5:2 final was sweet revenge for the Americans. They were beaten by Japan in penalty kicks in the World Cup Championship match, 4 years ago. Kenneth Crag, CBS News, New York.
