Hello.

The critics giving mixed reviews, but the singer is Rolling in the Deep with fans who are buying it up at a record pace. "Hello, how are you? It's so difficult for me to talk about myself" Fans hardly need a reminder of who she is. Adele is one of the music's brightest stars and it seems the whole world has been waiting for her new album 25. It's her third studio release and features the same rive emotions on the lost love and the big voice that has already won her an on road of Grammys along with an Oscar, a Golden Globe and MBE from Prince Charles and of course, the cover of the new Rolling Stone.

The music industry expects big numbers from 25. Billboard predicts it will sell at least 2.5 million copies in its first week. You can buy it, but the superstar refuses to stream it on services like Apple Music or Spotify. "Happy Thanks Giving everyone! Oh... thank you!" With the nee release out just in time for Thanks Giving, the cast of SNL seems to think it's the perfect thing for putting a stop to those dinner table arguments. "Hello, it's me. Thanks Adele!"

And while fans are thanking her, Adele is thanking them on her website, writing "25 is about getting to know who I've become without realizing. And I am sorry it took so long. But you know, life happened" "Everybody loves the things you do from the way he'll talk to the way he'll move!" The #ADELEONSNL continues to trend this morning. Last night Rosie O'Donnell tweeted about Adele commenting on her beauty simply saying "Dear God, he is beautiful ADELE#ADELEONSNL." Here is a deal. We have a special treat. Adele will perform live on the Today Show this Wednesday, right here on our studio. Are you here Wednesday? Rolling in the Deep.
