An incredible survival story you have to see. A young congressional aid shot 5 times and left to die near Johns Town. "I was lying on the airstrip with my head down, pretending I was dead" 40 years after the massacre that killed 900 Americans including beloved members of our NBC news family. Congress woman Jackie Spear tells Andrea Mitchell how she made it out alive. This is NBC Nightly News with Lester Holt.

Now to a powerful survival story and a woman who live to tell the world what she saw at the scene of American tragedy. For so many people, just a word "Johnstown" is enough to send a chill up your spine. But few know the horrors like congress woman Jackie Spear of California. At that time, a congressional aid, shot 5 times and left to die. Andrea Mitchell now with how she made it out alive.

It was a mass murder that transfixed the world. The victims almost a 1000 men, women and children who'd followed JIM JOHNS, a charismatic church leader, promising peace and love in the jungles of South America. But California congressman Leo Lyon and his 28-year-old staff attorney Jacki Spear were hearing something much darker. "They were defectors who came out. And we're talking about physical abuse, sexual abuse. But there was mind control involved" At first, they saw smiling faces and cheering crowds. But then a man passed NBC correspondent Don Harris a note "Some wanted out"

"My heart just sunk, because I knew that everything we were afraid of was true" Spear started taking statements from people who wanted to leave. "What is your wish today? ... Go back home" But when they tried to go, taking people with them, tensions exploded. "There were couples with children in which there were one was pulling, the child one way, the other, the other way, because one wanted to stay, one wanted to leave." Suddenly Johns' man tried to knife the congressman. They got as far as the landing strip and were ambushed. "The congressman Lyon had been hit. He got hit again and fell" The congressman and four others were killed including NBC correspondent Don Harris and cameraman Bob Brown.

"When did you realized you were shot? I was lying on the airstrip with my head down, pretending I was dead." Back in Johnstown, Jim John gave a faithful order. They died from Kool Aid laced with cyanide including 300 children. Those who refused were forced to inject with poison. "We failed 900 Americans. Did they die in vain? Of course, they died in vain. I mean their lives were shattered in part because they had been attracted to this charismatic maniac. They should have been able to get out of there. Our country owed that to them" And 10 years ago, she won congressman Lyon's old seat inspired in part by Johnstown. Andrea Mitchell NBC News.
